Dec 1st Closing Date for MFR Enrollment

The Alberta MFR Program will wrap up agency enrollments on Dec 1, 2016. This will conclude a twenty-month phase that began with the Program launch in Apr 2015. Closing out enrollments will allow the MFR team to develop other areas such as training and equipment supports.

Agencies that wish to respond to medical emergencies in their community must complete MFR enrollment before Dec 1, 2016.

Contact us at MFR@ahs.ca for more information.

Planned activity for next period

- Outstanding items, plus;
- Between now and Dec 1st, our major focus is supporting completion of MFR agency enrollments. If your agency is in-progress and you're not sure what the next step is, connect with us at MFR@ahs.ca.
- Support MFR enrollments with in-person discussions in Clearwater County, Turner Valley and other regions
- Publish online training module 'Introduction to Goals of Care Designations', an important topic for all Medical First Responders to understand
- Finalize details for the 2017 MFR Training & Equipment Fund. The opportunity to apply for patient care-related funding support will be available again to enrolled MFR agencies with full details to be announced in August!
